He stated that the Employer challenged the said award before the Hon'ble High Court under the Writ Petition No. 739/2015. He stated that the said Writ Petition filed before the Hon'ble High Court has been dismissed, thereby upholding the award passed by the Hon'ble Industrial Tribunal. He stated that thereafter, the Employer filed a special leave petition before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, which bears registration No. 8329/2016. He stated that the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India was pleased to dismiss the said special leave petition filed by the Employer, by its order dated 29-04-2016. He stated that the workmen requested the Employer to implement the award dated 13-07-2015 after dismissal of the said special leave petition by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India.

4. He stated that the management of the Employer has however, did not implement the said Award and the workmen was therefore, constrained to file the claim application u/s 33-C (1) of the I.D.

Act, 1947. He stated that pursuant to the claim filed by the workmen, the Hon'ble Tribunal has issued a show cause notice dated 16-11-2016 to the Employer for non-implementation of the Award dated 13-07-2015. He stated that the period of the Charter of Demand in which an Award dated 13-07-2015 was passed, has expired on 30-06-2012 and therefore a fresh Charter of Demands was submitted for the further period of four years and that the same was not resolved by the management of the Employer.

5. He stated that the General Body Meeting of the union held on 04-11-2016 therefore, unanimously decided to observe a strike against the non-implementation of the Award dated 13-07-2015 and the non-settlement of new Charter of Demand. He stated that the said strike was to be observed on 21-11-2016. He stated that on a receipt of the notice of the strike, the management of the Employer started harassing and threatening the workers especially the active members of the union. He stated that the action against him in the reference was in response to the legitimate union activities. He submitted that before commencement of the strike, the management, with an ulterior motive to destroy the union, issued malafide transfers to office bearers and active members of the union on 17-11-2016 and hence, all the union members went on legal strike demanding the immediate withdrawal of the malafide transfer orders. He stated that the strike was withdrawn and the workers went to resume their duties. He stated that the workers were not allowed to join the duties and it is only after the intervention of the Dy. Labour Commissioner, Margao, the workers were allowed to resume their duties.

6. He stated that he addressed a letter dated 12-12-2016 to the Works Manager of the Employer and requested to allow him to work as he alongwith some other workmen were forced to punch their cards and sit idle in the hot sun as punishment for participating in the legal strike. He stated that immediately after resuming the duty, he was issued a show cause notice dated 13-12-2016 by the Employer as to why disciplinary action should not be taken against him for participating in the strike. He stated that he submitted his detailed reply to the show cause notice by his letter dated 16-12-2016. He stated that vide its letter dated 16-12-2016, the Employer discharged him from their services. He stated that on receipt of the said discharge letter dated 16-12-2016, he submitted his reply dated 20-12-2016 and demanded immediate withdrawal of the said discharge letter. He submitted that after his discharge, he had raised an industrial dispute through his union before the Dy. Labour Commissioner, vide his letter dated 21-12-2016 which ended in failure.

7. The Workman contended that as he joined the union and requested the management to implement an Award dated 13-07-2015, he was illegally discharged from the services. He submitted that before discharging him, the Employer did not file any approval application as required under Section 33 of the I.D. Act, 1947. He submitted that before discharge of his services, the management has not conducted any enquiry and as such violated the principles of natural justice. He submitted that the letter of discharge issued to him is illegal, unjustified and bad-in-law. He submitted that his order of discharge, has not been signed by the appointing authority and as such it is illegal, unjustified and bad-in-law. He submitted that before termination his services, the management has not complied with Section 25-F, 25-H and 25-G of I.D. Act, 1947. He submitted that the Employer is employing more than 100 workers working in the said factory and hence, Chapter V-B of the I.D. Act, 1947 is applicable to the Employer. He submitted that before termination of his service, the management has not obtained the prior permission of retrenchment as required u/s 25-N of the I.D. Act, 1947. He submitted that at the time of his termination, no notice pay, retrenchment compensation was paid or offered and as such the termination is illegal, unjustified and bad-in-law.

8. He submitted that after giving discharge, he is unemployed and hence he is entitled for full back wages with continuity in service. He submitted that an act of the Employer in discharging him from its service amounts to an unfair labour practice in as much as the said discharge has been effected malafidely to penalise him for participating in legitimate trade union activities. The Workman therefore prayed that this Tribunal declare that his termination from service is illegal, improper, unjustified and set it aside and direct the Employer to reinstate the workman with full back wages, continuity in service with consequential benefits.

9. The Employer resisted the claim of the Workman by filing its written statement on 03-10-2018. The Employer, as and by way of its preliminary objections submitted that the reference is misconceived, frivolous, ill-founded and contrary to the fact and as such not maintainable in law. The Employer submitted that this Hon'ble Tribunal has no jurisdiction to entertain the same as the Workman during the material time, was admittedly employed with and was working as 'Tinter' on probation and therefore cannot be said to be a 'workman' within a meaning of section 2 (s) of the I.D. Act, 1947 and that he had no lien of employment and therefore the act of discharge of a probationer does not constitute any industrial dispute. The Employer submitted that the statement of claim is too vague, ambitious, clumsy and devoid of any material facts and therefore, not consistent with provisions of sub-regulation (2) of regulation 100 of the Industrial Court Regulations, 1975, that the Workman has utterly failed to make out any case in support of alleged cause of action and no case exist at all.

10. Without prejudice to the foregoing averments and the contentions therein, the services of the Workman being probationer was dispensed with as his services was found unsuitable and the Workman ought not be foisted upon the Employer for any reason of whatsoever. The Employer stated that it is engaged in the business of dealership of Maruti vehicles having its office at Goa. The Employer stated that for effective service to the customers of the said vehicles, it has its showrooms/sales services situated at Panaji, Goa. The Employer stated that there are 471 technicians situated at various service stations at Goa. The Employer stated that the workman was engaged by them on 18-05-2015 as a trainee and thereafter he was taken as a 'Tinter' on probation w.e.f. 18-04-2016 and extended from time to time. The Employer stated that the Workman was last working as a probationer. The Employer stated that on personal request and on humanitarian grounds, the services of the Workman were extended from time to time. The Employer stated that despite giving sufficient opportunities, the Workman was not found suitable for being made permanent in services. The Employer stated that it being engaged in a service oriented business, could not take a risk of continuing such non-suitable persons putting in the jeopardy the customer's vehicles and its reputation in the competitive market. The Employer stated that time and again the senior employees spoke to him individually and appraised him with poor performance and a decision on his poor performance was being postponed from time to time. The Employer stated that even after giving him numerous opportunities, the Workman did not improve his performance. The Employer stated that the Workman lacked in commitment and initiative and his work culture was bad. The Employer stated that the performance levels of the workman was very low and was not in a good relations even with his colleagues. The Employer stated that the Workman was warned from time to time, but he did not make any attempt to improve his own behaviour. The Employer stated that they had no other alternative and the cumulative effect regarding his individual performance culminated them in taking a conscious decision not to confirm him in their service. The Employer stated that the workman was handed over a letter dated 16-12-2016 informing him that scrutinizing his work, conduct and performances, the same was not found satisfactory and hence, its management, in accordance with clause 28 of his appointment letter had decided to discharge him from services. The Employer stated that the Workman refused to accept the said letter and sought to hand over to him in presence of two witnesses and as such the necessary endorsement was made and the said letter along with compensation was sent on his last known address. The Employer denied the case of the Workman as pleaded in its claim statement and prayed for rejection of the reference.

11. Thereafter, the Workman filed his re-joinder on 22-10-2018 at Exb. 5. The Workman, by way of his re-joinder, confirms and reiterates all the submissions and averments made by him in his claim statement to be true and correct and denies all the statements and averments made by the Employer in its Written Statement, which are contrary to the statements and averments made by him.

12. Based on the pleadings filed by the respective Parties, this Hon'ble Labour Court II has framed the following issues on 10-12-2018 at Exb. 10.

1. Whether the Workman/Party I proves that the action of the Employer in terminating his services with effect from 16-12-2016 is illegal and unjustified?
2. Whether the Workman/Party-I proves that the action of the Employer in terminating his services of the workman by way of discharge amounts to an unfair labour practice as defined in Schedule V of the I.D. Act, 1947?
3. Whether the Employer/Party II proves that the present reference is not maintainable in view of the reasons mentioned in para 1 (a) to 1 (i) of its written statement?
4. Whether the Workman/Party II is entitled to any relief?
5. What Order? What Award?

13. Thereafter, the matter was fixed for filing affidavit in evidence of the Workman. The Workman has however sought time to file his affidavit in evidence and case was adjourned to 16-03-2021. On 16-03-2021, Ld. Rep. Shri P. Gaonkar appeared for the Workman. The Employer was represented by Ld. Rep. Shri K.V. Nadkarny.
